

Construction Quality Control Manager

Summary

The Quality Control Manager is responsible for inspecting, documenting, and reporting on new construction installations. While doing so, they will complete quality control check sheets and help assess overall quality, potential issues, and opportunities for improvement.

Qualifications:

2+ Years of Construction Experience as an installer, General Contractor, or Inspector, or equivalent education preferred.

Mechanical (Plumbing, HVAC, Electrical) Experience preferred.

Current Driver's License and ability to operate Company Vehicle.

Capable of using technology and tools to test and assess inspection quality.

Must be able to work effectively with superintendents to help identify and correct installation issues.

Must be able to generate reports and summarizing those findings to managers on a regular basis.